Circular

No. 11/6/2011-LD/(Estt)/881

The Hon'ble High Court Bombay at Panaji in Public Interest litigation Writ Petition No 2/2005 Shri Datta Naik Versus State of Goa through Chief Secretary and others has passed the following Order in the said case wherein it was brought to the notice of Bombay High Court that criminal cases for prosecution of serious offences were pending against the politician, wherein one of the Minister himself an accused had appointed Special Public Prosecutor which make a mockery of entire criminal Justice system. Therefore the author of the letter raised serious apprehension about the impartiality in the prosecution.

The Bombay High Court took serious note on the said PIL and appointed the Professional Legal Experts of the State as an Amicus-Curiae and suggestion were sought from the professional experts.

The Learned Amicus-Curiae had made the following suggestions:

- (1) The appointment of Public Prosecutors in the Lower Court has to be done in consultation with the Principal District & Sessions Judge in their respective Districts.
- (2) The authorities involved in such appointment process should be the Director of Prosecution; the Law Secretary and the Learned Principal District Judge of the District Court and at the highest, the Learned Advocate General may be consulted by the Government if it so desires.
- (3) The Executive Government should have no role at all in such appointment and the only role which an executive Government may play is through the police or the intelligence machinery for finding out the antecedents of the candidates.
- (4) The politicians and ministers who are themselves involved as accused persons or in any manner whatsoever, ought not to participate at all in the entire process of appointing Public Prosecutors. There should be complete forbearance for them to have any say whatsoever, in appointing Public Prosecutors in the decision making process concerning the appointment of Public Prosecutors.
- (5) The aforesaid process will create an independent body of Prosecuting Officers free from the executive and all external interference thereby raising the hope of enforcing the rule of Law without fear or favor, advance public interest in punishing the guilty and protecting the innocent.

The Learned Amicus-Curiae has also suggested that politician/Ministers bureaucrats who are themselves involved as accused person or who are blood relation of the accused person shall not participate in the matter or they will have no say whatsoever in the decision making process concerning the appointment of public prosecutors.

As regard appointing of Public Prosecutor in the High Court is concerned Learned Amicus-Curiae stated that their appointment will be made in consultation with Hon'ble High Court in accordance with the provisions of section 24(1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

The Hon'ble High Court appreciated the suggestions put forth by the Learned Amicus-Curiae and found them to be reasonable and therefore dismissed the Writ Petition in terms of following Order:—

- (I) The appointment of Public Prosecutors in the Lower Courts and District Courts shall be made by the Appointing Authority on the basis of the recommendations' of the Committee consisting of (1) the Director of Prosecution, (2) Law Secretary, State of Goa, (3) the Principal District & Session Judge of the concerned District and (4) the concerned District Magistrate and if required, Learned Advocate General may be consulted by the Government.
- (II) Such appointment shall be made only from out of the candidates recommended by the above Committee and the executive Government will have no role in such appointment, except for the purpose of examining the antecedents of the candidate for which it may make inquiries through the police or intelligence machinery of the State, but in no case, the executive Government shall appoint any person as Public Prosecutor whose name is not recommended by the Committee.
- (III) The politicians, ministers or the bureaucrats who are themselves involved as accused persons or who are blood relations of the accused person, shall not participate in the matter and they will have no say whatsoever in the decision making process concerning the appointment of the Public Prosecutors.

(IV) As far as the appointment of public prosecutor in the High Court is concerned, their appointment shall be made in consultation with the High Court in accordance with the provisions of Section 24(1) of the Code of Criminal Procedure.

(V) So far as appointment of Special Public Prosecutor is concerned, the politicians, minister or the bureaucrats who are themselves involved as accused person, shall not participate in the matter and they will have no say whatsoever in the decision making process of appointment of the Special Public Prosecutors for such cases.

(VI) Persons who are close to Politicians or any manner communicated with Politicians ought not to be appointed as Public Prosecutor.

All the Heads of Departments/Offices are required to keep the instructions of Hon'ble High Court in mind at all times and take utmost care to see that no Public Prosecutor shall be appointed without the recommendation of the Committee but in no case, the Executive Government shall appoint any person as Public Prosecutor whose name is not recommended by the Committee.

All the Heads of Department are directed to scrupulously follow the instructions of the Hon'ble High Court.
